

Hakuba Galettes

Overview	A “galette” is a local cuisine of the Brittany region in North-western France. A “Hakuba Galette” is a newly-created local cuisine of Hakuba, made with local buckwheat, Hakuba Pork, Shinshu Salmon and locally grown fresh vegetables. Please enjoy this new addition to the specialty foods of Nagano, a famous place for buckwheat noodles!
Photo	 A photograph of a Hakuba Galette, a buckwheat flatbread topped with fresh vegetables, salmon, and pork, served on a white plate with a cup of coffee and silverware.
Time	Throughout the year
Place	Lodgings and restaurants in Hakuba Village
Price	Varies at each lodging and restaurant
Contact	HAKUBA society of commerce and industry: +81-261-72-5101 (in Japanese only)
Website	http://www.hakubagalette.jp (in Japanese only)
Access	http://www.hakubagalette.jp (in Japanese only)