

Hina Doll Festival: 1,000 Dolls on 30 Steps

Description	Hina Doll Festival is Suzaka's special feature of the spring. It is one of the largest hina doll displays in Japan! At each of World Folk Doll Museum and Suzaka Hanga Museum, you can see a spectacular display of 1,000 hina dolls on 30 steps of 6m high, which fills Suzaka Art Park with a festive spirit. Photos taken in front of the grand doll display will be a wonderful memory of your visit to Suzaka. The houses at the neighboring Historical Building Park will also have hina doll displays on 7 steps. A total of 6,000 dolls will welcome your visit to Suzaka Art Park. Hina festival is an occasion to pray for healthy growth for girls in the family. Please enjoy seeing hina dolls from various ages from the Meiji to Heisei periods.
Photo
Open	World Folk Doll Museum: Wednesday, Jan. 21~Sunday, Apr. 19 2015 Suzaka Hanga Museum, Historical Building Park: Wednesday, Jan. 21~Sunday, May 31, 2015 9:00am~5:00pm (Last entry at 4:30pm)
Place	World Folk Doll Museum, Suzaka Hanga Museum, Historical Building Park (Free admission)
Fee	500 yen (for two museums), free for jr. high or younger
Contact	+81-26-245-2340

Website	http://www.culture-suzaka.or.jp/hinamatsuri/
Access	8 min. by car from Suzaka Nagano Higashi IC on Joshin'etsu Expressway 8 min. by taxi from Nagano Dentetsu Suzaka Station