

Asama 2000 Park Ski Resort

Located on the border of Gumma and Nagano prefectures in the heart of Joshin'etsu Kogen National Park, Asama 2000 Park is one of the highest ski resorts in Japan, where you can enjoy the snow until spring. Please experience excitement of skiing down through the great nature against the backdrop of panoramic view of the Northern Alps.

Season	Open until Sunday, April 10
Location	Takamine Highlands, Komoro City
Fee	【One-day Pass】 (Week days) Adult & Senior: 2,000 yen, Child: 1,000 yen (Weekends & holidays until March 21) Adult: 4,000 yen, Senior: 2,500 yen, Child: 1,000 yen (March 30~April 12) Adult & Senior: 2,000 yen, Child: 1,000 yen
Contact	Asama 2000 Park: +81-267-23-1714
Website	http://www.asama2000.com/ (Japanese)
Access	By train/bus: Get off the Nagano Shinkansen at JR Karuizawa Station, and take a Shinano Railway train at Komoro Station. Then take a local bus for about 45 min. Or take a local bus for 60 min. from Sakudaira Station on the Nagano Shinkansen line. By highway bus: About 4 hours from Shinjuku, Tokyo. By car: 35-min. drive from the Komoro Exit on the Joshin'etsu Expressway.
Available Languages	