

Strawberry Picking at Komoro Nunobiki Strawberry Farm

Thanks to the great nature of Mt. Asama, Komoro has a large temperature difference between day and night, and long hours of sunlight, which nurtures sweet and tasty gem-like strawberries. At Komoro Nunobiki Strawberry Farm, anybody can enjoy strawberry picking in the green houses on wide aisles from three tiers of strawberry shelves.

Season	From January to late June, 2016 (10:00am~3:00pm)
Location	Komoro Nunobiki Strawberry Farm, Komoro City
Fee	【Regular Fee】 Middle school and older: 1,500 yen, Elementary school: 1,300 yen, Preschool older than 2 years: 1,000 yen (complementary condensed milk included)
Contact	Komoro Nunobiki Strawberry Farm: +81-267-26-2615
Website	http://www.ichigodaira.com/index.htm (Japanese)
Access	By train: At Karuizawa Station on the Nagano Shinkansen line, transfer to a Shinano Railway train. Get off at Komoro Station and take a bus or taxi for eight minutes. By car: 10-min. drive from the Komoro Exit on the Joshin'etsu Expressway By express bus: Take an express bus from Shinjuku or Ikebukuro in Tokyo, and get off at Komoro Station. Take a bus or taxi for eight min.
Available Languages	