

Ombashira Festival in Iida

The Ombashira Festival is held once every seven years in the years of the Tiger and Monkey. When you hear the Ombashira Festival, you may think of Suwa City, where the Suwa Grand Shrine is located. However, several districts in Iida City also hold this festival.

On the days of the festival, please enjoy seeing logs pulled into the towns and erected at the shrine precincts by courageous shrine members.

Date	April 2016 ※The dates differ from district to district.
Location	Several districts in Iida City
Fee	Free
Contact	Iida Tourism Association: +81-265-22-4851
Website	http://www.ii-s.org/ (Japanese) ※ The special site featuring the Ombashira Festival will be created soon.
Access	By car: 10 to 30-min. drive to each shrine from the Iida Exit on the Chuo Expressway By train/bus
Available Languages	English, Japanese