

Cherry Blossoms in Iida

Iida City is home to historic cherry trees over 300 years old, and cherry trees noted for their beautiful shapes. In some places, these trees start to bloom in late March, and visited by many viewers every year.

Cherry tree on the stage in Omi (Zakoji, Iida City), Weeping cherry tree at Kinehara School (Yamamoto, Iida City), Weeping cherry tree at Amida Temple (Maruyama-cho, Iida City), Cherry trees along Omiya Street (Omiya Street, Iida City), Weeping cherry tree at Senshoji Temple (Temma-cho, Iida City), Weeping tree at Shoeiji Temple (Edo-machi, Iida City), Weeping tree at Obaiin Temple (Edo-machi, Iida City), Twin trees at Sakuramaru (Otemachi, Iida City), Edo Higan cherry trees in Osahime (Yasutomi cherry tree) (Otemachi, Iida City), Seishu cherry tree (Atago-cho, Iida City), Weeping canopy cherry tree at Zosenji Temple (Osegi, Iida City), Weeping cherry tree of Kuyoto (Yamamoto, Iida City), Cherry highway in Tenryu-kyo Valley (Tenryukyo Valley, Iida City), Edo Higan cherry tree at Misajiro Shishizuka burial mound (Matsuo Misajiro, Iida City), Iinuma cherry trees along stone steps (Kamisato Iinuma, Iida City), Cherry trees in Toyamago (Minami Shinano, Iida City)

Season	From early to late April
Location	Many places in Iida City (Please see above.)
Fee	Free
Contact	Iida Tourism Association: +81-265-22-4851
Website	http://www.i-i-s.org/ (Japanese)
Access	By car: 10~20-min. drive from the Iida Exit on the Chuo Expressway By train/bus: Walk or take a circuit bus to each place from Iida Station on JR Iida Line.
Available Languages	English, Japanese