

Blueberry Picking in Suzaka

Sonosato Blueberry Farm is located on a hill, which commands distant views of the Alps and Nagano City. They grow their blueberries organically with every possible care to provide delicious blueberries. Please enjoy luxury of eating fresh blueberries, which are available only for a short time during the summer.

Season	Early July~early August
Location	742-1 Toyooka-machi, Suzaka City, Nagano Prefecture
Fee	Entrance fee (including all-you-can-eat blueberries): Adult...1,000 yen, 4-year-old to middle school...500 yen, 3-year-old and younger...free
Contact	TEL&FAX: +81-26-248-4627
Website	http://www.suzaka-kankokyokai.jp/contents/product/115.html (Japanese) http://blog.suzaka.jp/sonosato.b.b.f (Japanese)
Access	By car: 20-min. drive from the Suzaka-Nagano Higashi Exit on the Joshin'etsu Expressway By train and bus: Get off a Nagano Dentetsu train at Suzaka Station, and take a taxi for about 12 minutes.
Available Language	Japanese, Simplified Chinese